Weymouth.

July 28th 1868.

My Dear Irene,

Miss Estlin will stay with us till Saturday the 8th of August. Then my sister Caroline goes to Nahant & we have the engagement.

I think Miss Estlin would like to come to you at that time, & perhaps it would be best, if this plan suits your convenience for you to write to her & say that when her visit closes here, you shall be happy to receive her.

Perhaps in your letter you had better simply say this to her without alluding to my having written to you, or Ofanny she was expecting we should make all these arrange ments last Saturday, & I did mean to have spoken to you about it but was prevented by something or other.

We wrote them both most delightful & sh

seems to have enjoyed it, tho' her health is certainly very precarious.

With love to Mrs Garrison & Mrs Villard

Affectionately yrs
